

Memo from

JOSHUA LEDERBERG

To:

Bacteriologists

SEP 3 1975

Obj: Path to the Double Helix
(MacMillan London)

my copy has just arrived - and it is obviously a must for our group. It was reviewed in Science (encl. in case you missed that.) I would appreciate notice of any other reviews you may encounter.

To follow (after I have had time for careful reading) - my own comments on S. Cohen's review, and on the book itself.
